

PASTOR'S PONDERINGS

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of faith." (Hebrews 12:1-2a)

The beginning of November pulls our attention closer to the celebration of Thanksgiving. Yet, I'd like to pause, and look back at Halloween and the very beginning of November. Halloween actually marks the beginning of a three-day triduum with a significant emphasis on life and death. The scary faces carved into pumpkins were originally made to ward off evil spirits. They remind us of our mortality. The word Halloween derives its meaning from All Hallows Eve. Hallows is an Old English word meaning holy or sanctified and was used because the next day, November 1st the Church traditionally celebrate All Saints Day, followed by All Souls Day on November 2nd. Today, these festivals have all merged together when we celebrate All Saints Day to incorporate all the saints of God – those who have died and also we, the living saints. Individuals have a hard time thinking of themselves as saints because they often think of saints as those special people who have died and did amazing things on earth. While these special individuals are saints, they are not the only ones.

The word "saint" comes from the Greek word hagios, which means "holy, sacred, or consecrated by God." There are many examples in scripture that refer to all the people of God as saints. For example, St. Paul, writing to the church in ancient Corinth began his letter, "To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ." Here St. Paul clearly states that all people who are united in Christ through baptism are saints of God because we have been consecrated, or set aside, to do the work of God. The Church therefore, is filled with the saints of God. And as the reformer, Martin Luther, often said, we are both sinners and saints. We are not perfect, but if we are truly repentant, God forgives us our sins and the Holy Spirit is constantly working in us to make us more and more aligned with the heart of God.

Life can be quite difficult. There are times when we may grow weary in doing what is right when it seems like evil is increasing around us. Yet, St. Paul again urges us to let go of the weight of the burden of sin and to persevere in doing what is right because God is with us. Jesus showed us how to persevere in faith. Our ancestors and others in the Church have shown us how to persevere in faith despite overwhelming obstacles.

So "let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up." (Galatians 6:9) Remember that we are "surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses" both past and present who are cheering us on as workers in the kingdom of God. This is something we can be most thankful for every day.

Blessings and Peace,
Pastor Edwina

Christmas is just around the corner. Each year First Presbyterian Church sponsors the Angel Tree project for families qualified by the Salvation Army. The tree will be set up on November 20th in the sanctuary of Zion Church. There will be 80 tags from which you may choose. The ages vary from newborns to 12 years of age. After you have chosen the children's tags, please, please, enter the child's name and number into the green book that will be placed next to the tree. If any of the tags get misplaced, a new one can be made so that child receives the gifts. Please remember, place two new toys and a clothing item in an unwrapped bag so the Salvation Army packers know exactly what is being given to that child.

An age-appropriate stocking bag with little goodies will also be placed in the bag for that specific child. Thank you for helping to make Christmas an unforgettable blessing for many children in our community. If you have any questions, please call Sue Hanson, 315-338-1473.

STEWARDSHIP NEWS

If the weather stays warm and not too wet, we may see the roof rise on the sanctuary—a big step closer to being home again. Through the rebuilding process, the Session has thought about what we will do when we get there, and the answer is tasks. Tasks are small things—one-and-done things, short-term things, occasional things, seasonal things. Tasks are things you choose to do to share your interests and skills. These tasks may already be things we've done or are doing or they may be something new we've not tried yet. For example,

- lead a book discussion
- lead a Faith Formation class
- join the choir for Candlelight
- bake for a coffee hour
- lead a craft
- cook for Rescue Mission
- help decorate and un-decorate the church for Christmas
- picture directory coordinator, photographers, format people
- website help
- help with youth group
- help with Advent event
- be a confirmation mentor
- help with ushering
- be a lay reader
- sound and/or video help

and so much more!—It all depends on your imagination!

Remember that God asks for our time, talents, and treasure, and our church needs all three, so please prayerfully think. And these tasks can be done now at Zion too. While reimagining church, imagine what task you could do and share, because part of the joy of being the church is being together and working together.

Transformational Trails

Compassion is a way of engaging with imperfection — in ourselves, others, and the systems we inhabit — without turning away from responsibility or truth. For example, I can have compassion for a parent who grew up in a home where discipline was harsh or rooted in fear, and who therefore learned that control or punishment was the only way to keep order. Compassion helps us understand where those patterns come from while still holding people accountable to choose differently and protect those in their care.

You are personally invited to join the Transformational Trails community on ZOOM to learn more.

Session Details:

What: Bi-Weekly ZOOM Learning Session (1 hour)

Focus: Making Curiosity, Compassion, and Active Listening real in practice.

Next Meeting: Tuesday, November 11 at 3:00 PM

Register: email uticastedclerk@gmail.com for the ZOOM link to join the sessions

Reducing/Eliminating Fossil Fuels

NYSERDA Energy Audits. ReWire will coordinate level one energy audits with an NYSERDA certified auditor at no cost to congregations of the Presbytery of Utica. The audit report will help congregations determine recommended energy improvements make the most sense for the congregation.

Community Solar Program. ReWire has organized a program whereby congregations can purchase their electricity from a local solar farm. There is no cost to join the program, and no additional equipment needed. First Presbyterian Church of Holland Patent is the first congregation to commit to participating in the community solar program; while there will be incremental dollar savings over the course of the year, the church will reduce its carbon footprint by approximately 6.6 metric tons of CO<sub>2</sub> annually.

As more congregations join the program, the churches of the Presbytery of Utica can have a tremendous impact on reducing the amount of carbon dioxide we introduce into the atmosphere—and increase shalom for ourselves and for the land.

For more information or to schedule an energy audit, contact Larry Beasley at uticastedclerk@gmail.com or 315-794-9124.
